

Assignment - 1

- 1) Define a Problem statement and give a brief Executive summary Snapshot.

→ The Sample business requirement document template.

Problem: We human spend money to fulfill our needs in our daily life. Sometimes we don't reach our target how much money we spent. We should know how much we earn and how much we spend every day. Even the big-big companies also sometime face faces problems like this.

Executive summary Snapshot: Whether a common man or a millionaire, he needs to keep an account every day. Due to the lack of daily accounting, it is difficult to do financial management, for that expenses manager is needed. For this problem, we have decided to create expenses manager. First of all, we have to go according to the requirements of the customer and we have to think about safety. This is not only the problem of common people but also the problem of big companies. Companies do lots of projects for the benefit of their company. They also need to manage their account relative to this things.

Process:

- 1) ~~Desi~~ Planning
- 2) Analysis
- 3) Design
- 4) Development
- 5) Implementation
- 6) Testing
- 7) Maintenance.

Prototype:

| Expenses manager |       |         |       |
|------------------|-------|---------|-------|
| ↓                |       |         |       |
| Category:        | x42 ✓ | Amount: | Date: |
| (Add the page)   |       |         |       |
| ↓                |       |         |       |
| Save             |       |         |       |

Project description:

Project is related to solve the problem of humans related to expenses manager of their daily life.

Requirement: Proposed solution through, app applications, website applications.

challenges: 1) Acceptance of people.

2) Safe in all respects.

3) Everyone's need should be completed.

4) Should be a strong application.

Project scope:

1) It allows the system by which people will know their daily expenses.

2) On the basis of people daily expenses it will adapt or will give the suggestion about how they need to make their financial management strong.

3) It will help to find their error related to expenses management.

4) Provide a strong safety guard.